THE new charter provides for cities of thirty-five thousand people and over but it does not say one word about boundaries. Fatal defect.

THE QUESTION OF APPROPRIATIONS. Governor Porter-I received a letter from A. T. Goshorn, director-general, recently, and have been somewhat troubled as to what course I should pur sue. The question rests upon the fact as to whether the State will have the demands of such an undertaking. There is now, you know, a hue and cry all over the State about its financial condition. This is an imaginary trouble on the part of the people. There is no inability on the part of the State to meet all the de-mands made upon it. There is no doubt that there are many men in the State who, by reason of the panic of 1873 and the drought of last season, are in a des-perate strait. Much of the clamor proceeds from them. They are using all their energy to meet their liabilities, and are, therefore, opposed to anything hav-ing a tendency to depress them, though it be of a light nature. But the cry has been so persistent that all alike pro-claim "hard times" For instance, a farmer in my county came to me the other day and complained of "hard times." I asked him whether he owed anything. He replied, "No " Whether he bought as much and lived as well as he ever did. He said, "Yes."

Four Vietims Yesterday-Two Negroes Hung for Murder and Arson, and One for Murder and Robbery.

New Orleans, April 16.-Isham Brown, colored, was hung, four miles from Greensburg, at half-past ten o'clock this morning, for the murder of James ability to furnish the money to meet the W. Clinton, an attorney of St. Helens parish, on the eighteenth of December last. Brown was convicted on circumstantial evidence. The Picayune publishes the confession of Brown, in which he states the particulars of the killing. Brown overtook Clinton riding along the road, and shot him with a singlebarrel pistol. Clinton dismounted and walked to a tree a short distance from the road. Brown went up to him, when Clinton told Brown to take his horse and what he had, that he (Clinton) would say nothing about it. Brown drew his knife and cut the horse's throat, and, after giving Clinton ten minutes to pray, drew bls knife across Clinton's throat, took his watch and valuables, and left. This was on Friday. Cliuton's body was found the following ounday, and the conclusion of the coroner's jury was that Clinton had lingered until that morning. TWO MORE VICTIMS.
